

ASK THE RIGHT QUESTIONS
CLINIC / PRACTITIONER QUALIFICATIONS
I was given a tour of the clinic and was happy to proceed with the consultation
I asked to see a copy of the practitioner qualifications & I made a note of name / qualifications
I asked to see a copy of the practitioners indemnity insurance & checked it was up-to-date
MEDICAL HISTORY
I completed a detailed medical history form & it was checked by my practitioner
I received a detailed consultation (were photo's / measurements discussed / taken?)
I received a physical examination of the area to be treated
I was told by the practitioner that I am medically suitable for the recommended treatments
TREATMENTS
I was recommended treatment/s
I was informed about alternative options (if any)
I was told about pre and post care advice and what I need to do
I was told when I would expect to see results
I was told about what the expected results would look like
I was told how long the results will last
I was told what would happen if I didn't like the results
I was told about the cost of treatment and payment plans
I was told how long I would take to heal & what I would look like directly after treatment
I was told about side effects following the treatment including worse case scenarios
I asked how the practitioner would manage any complications should they arise
I was informed about the treatment techniques
I am satisfied that the environment is sterile and correct protocols will be used (gloves etc)
I was shown the products (unopened & in date) that will be used & I made a note of the name
I asked whether I would experience any pain and pain management during and after treatment
I was told how many appointments I would need, how often and how much time they would take
I was given literature on the treatments / procedures to take home with me
CONSENT AND REVIEW
I was given a cooling off period
I was given/sent a written treatment plan and cost estimate
Prior to my treatment I was given a consent form to sign
I was given before and after photos
I was invited for a review appointment (if necessary)	